25 YEAR RE-REVIEW

Office of Legislative Counsel

Friday - 4 March 1960

1. Talked with Al Westphal, House Foreign Affairs Committee staff, and he advised that in view of the departure of [redacted] for about one month for an overseas tour no action will be taken on the amendments to the Foreign Service Act until his return. 25X1

Also sent forward to Westphal an unclassified paper furnishing certain information on individuals as previously requested. (See paper attached.)

2. Sat in for the last portion of the National Security Council appropriation hearings at which [redacted] was the principal witness accompanied by Saunders and [redacted] The hearing proceeded routinely and no questions were asked arising out of the Jackson Sub-committee hearings. 25X1 25X1

3. Florence Kerlin of State Department called inquiring if we had yet spoken to Senator Javits about the paper which ORR had requested coordination by State. I explained that it had been my understanding that the Department would furnish us with appropriate reasoning why we should talk with Javits on not forwarding the paper to him. Miss Kerlin indicated this had not been her understanding. Nevertheless, I requested we be furnished this since I was reluctant to take action without knowing the matter in more precise detail.

of the true government interest. He stated he would look into the matter with the Committee and concluded by saying that if it were essential he knew of a way to accomplish this and it could certainly be done. I am not certain of his real reaction to this request for possible legislation and suggest we let the matter ride for a few days.
